PETER PÁLAGY has over 17 years of clinical and project management experience across a broad range of therapeutic areas.

After starting his career in clinical operations, Peter moved to senior management roles overseeing clinical operations in CEE region and later outsourcing and vendor management function for ZAK. Prior to joining ZAK, Peter worked in global pharmaceutical and CRO companies holding various clinical management positions. Peter has also completed multiple training session in the field of Auditing/Inspecting Clinical Trials for GCP Compliance and Pharmacovigilance Training/Qualified Trainer Training.

Peter has obtained a Pharm.D. and an MSc. in Pharmaceutical Sciences.